

Title: God's Sovereignty and Our Choices

Scripture Reference: Ruth 2

Description: Have you ever wondered, “If God's in control, then am I essentially a puppet or robot?” Maybe you've thought that God created everything, set the wheels in motion, but has now stepped back to let us do what we choose. Maybe you have an entirely different idea of how our choices mesh with God's plan. We see in the Book of Ruth, specifically chapter 2 in this sermon, that God's in control, but we have a role.

Main Idea: God's in control but we have a role.

Truths

1. God is always working according to His will
2. God ordains both the means and the end
3. We reap what we sow (Law of Harvest)
4. We're responsible for the natural (obedience) – God's responsible for the “super”
5. God gives us the privilege of including us in His work
6. Our choices have far-reaching implications on our lives and the lives of others

Applications

- Trust God as Savior
- Trust God as Provider
- Trust God as Protector

- Trust God as Comforter
- Trust God in the next step